Interlude

Megan Yohman

We welcome Dr. Jack Causey to our pulpit this morning. Following graduation from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, Jack Causey came to the First Baptist Church of Greensboro to serve as their associate pastor. Since then he has served three churches as pastor over a period of 35 years with the last one being the First Baptist Church of Statesville where he served with Dan and Jane Pardue (Lea’s parents). Having retired nine years ago, he now works with two Baptist groups in the State assisting ministers and churches in fulfilling God’s call on their lives. He and his wife, Mary Lib, have two children and three grandsons.

Congregation

If you are new among us, welcome! We hope that your worship experience here is meaningful. We are thankful you are here and pray that you sense the healing, comforting peace of our Lord. We believe that communion is for all believers in Jesus Christ. If you have accepted Christ as your Lord and Savior, you are encouraged to join us in taking communion.

The Hymn of Discipleship is a time for you to commit your life to Christ. If you desire to commit your life for the first time and confess Christ as Lord and Savior or if you wish to rededicate your life to Christ or join the fellowship of this church, please come forward at this time. You may also use this time to come to pray with the minister or individually at the altar.
